

SPEAKING 4 THE PLANET

speaking4theplanet.org.au

ABOUT

Speaking 4 the Planet is a sustainability competition that promotes creative communication about the environment.

Participants develop a creative work aligned with a theme and present it at the S4P event.

This year's theme: Sustainable cities and communities, highlighting awareness of existing environmental problems, proposing solutions or imagining a better future using artistic expression.

DETAILS & TIMELINE

24 Feb: Launch
26 May: Participants confirmed
18 Aug: Formats finalised
2 Nov: AV submitted

12 Nov: S4P Event
8:30am-12:30pm
Taronga Zoo (tbc)

GUIDELINES

- For students Y5-Y11
- Schools can submit multiple projects; individual and team projects welcome
- Cross-school teams encouraged
- All projects presented / performed on 12 November (up to 15 students per school)
- Max 5 min length

Competition Categories

Speaking | Writing |
Performance Art |
Visual Arts | Functional
Design (habitat boxes, pocket forest, etc.)

Mosman
COUNCIL

Jenni: jenni@greenschoolscollective.org
Julia: GreenSchoolsCollective@gmail.com